I was thinking about inspections and our plan for the year. Review my notes below and then let's meet early next week. I would like to have a schedule and plan in place in the next couple of weeks. I know you guys are busy on different matters but given the discussions over the past couple of week I think it benefits us to have a written plan and timeline for executing. Thanks, I'll give you a call this week and we can discuss and then prepare something.

A plan for the balance of this year:

Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

I would like to discuss this plan and get all of your inputs as well and then put together an implementation plan. I would hope by the end of next week.
